Part III; January 15, 2017

I have rejoiced in your laws as much as in riches. I will study your commandments and reflect on your ways. I will delight in your decrees and not forget your word. Be good to your servant, that I may live and obey your word. Open my eyes to see the wonderful truths in your instructions.
– Psalm 119:14-18 (NLT)

“Your Attitude Is More Important Than Your Aptitude!”

An attitude of eagerness

You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.
– Jeremiah 29:13 (NIV)

I was GLAD when they said to me, “Let us go to the house of the Lord.”
– Psalm 122:1 (NLT)

An attitude of expectancy

Then he touched their eyes and said, “According to your faith let it be done to you”; and their sight was restored.
– Matthew 9:29 (NIV)

And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.
– Hebrews 11:6 (NIV)

Sometimes we don’t see God because we’re simply not expecting to see Him!

An attitude of openness

Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. Point out anything in me that offends you, and lead me along the path of everlasting life.
– Psalm 139:23-24 (NLT)

An attitude of humility

“Now, Lord my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David. But I am only a little child and do not know how to carry out my duties... So give your servant a discerning heart to govern your people and to distinguish between right and wrong. For who is able to govern this great people of yours?” The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked for this.
– 1 Kings 3:7-10 (NIV)

An attitude of brokenness

The sacrifice you desire is a broken spirit. You will not reject a broken and repentant heart, O God.
– Psalm 51:17 (NLT)

It’s amazing how willing God is to offer His Grace. It’s more amazing how hard it is to admit we need it!
