

Level Five Relationships Part V; May 6, 2018

Five Facts We Need To Know:

We were designed to be in healthy relationships.

You can be around people and still be lonely.

Healthy relationships impact MANY areas of our lives.

People of ALL AGES struggle with relationships.

For my relationships to be healthy, I have to be healthy!

A Healthy 'WE' Starts With A Healthy 'ME!'

“Do not judge others, and you will not be judged. For you will be treated as you treat others. The standard you use in judging is the standard by which you will be judged. And why worry about a speck in your friend’s eye when you have a log in your own? How can you think of saying to your friend, ‘Let me help you get rid of that speck in your eye,’ when you can’t see past the log in your own eye? Hypocrite! First get rid of the log in your own eye; then you will see well enough to deal with the speck in your friend’s eye.” – Matthew 7:1-5 (NLT)

Accept that YOU are probably the carrier of most of your relational diseases!

“Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.”
– Psalm 139:23-24 (NIV)

Look for the common themes.

Listen for the common phrases.

Take note of the common feelings.

Do more than learn what you lack;
Change it!

Work at getting along with each other and with God. Otherwise you’ll never get so much as a glimpse of God. Make sure no one gets left out of God’s generosity. Keep a sharp eye out for weeds of bitter discontent. A thistle or two gone to seed can ruin a whole garden in no time.
– Hebrews 12:14-15 (MSG)

Let God take you to the roots.

Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell at his feet and, trembling with fear, told him the whole truth.
– Mark 5:33 (NIV)
